The Mice and the Elephants

One day a group of elephants in search of water came to a place where a group of mice lived peacefully. Fearing that they would be crushed to death, the king of rats requested the king of the elephants to guide his herd through another route. The elephant king agreed and took another route to the water. One day elephant-hunters came and trapped the herd of elephants in huge nets. On listening to the cries of the elephants, the rat king took his entire group of mice and they cut open the nets. The elephants were set free.
